THE FIRST STEP

To baby's health must be taken before baby's birth. The child can have no more health than the mother gives it. A healthy mother, strong of body and cheerful of mind, will bear a child with her own physical health and cheerful disposition. Many a wife who had dreaded motherhood because of past experience of personal misery of mind and body has found a new life with the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives physical strength, soothes the nerves, and induces restful sleep. It gives vigor and elasticity of mind, so that the birth hour is practically without pain or suffering. It enables the mother to provide a plentiful supply of healthful nourishment for the healthy child and makes weak women strong.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce's letter of charge. All correspondence strictly private and entirely confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I am a practicing physician, Mrs. Newland, Co. Virginia. I have my blind little boy born I took six bottles. My son is now a healthy, strong boy and I suffered very much less than I did before in confinement. I unhesitatingly advise every woman to use the Favorite Prescription."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a pleasant and effective laxative medicine.

REBELLION.

Secretary Navy Under Cleveland Urges a Political Revolt in the South.

He Puts no Premium on Loyalty to Party in that Section of the Country.

Montgomery, Ala., June 28.—Secretary H. A. Herbert, addressed the Alabama Bar Association on the subject of "Duties and Responsibilities of the American Lawyer in the Twentieth Century." The constitutional convention adjourned in honor of his address, and the address was delivered to both bodies in the state capital.

Colonel Herbert declared: "We are in need of freer thought and freer action in the south. The time has come when no man should support the nominees of his party unless he approves. If no party puts out a platform and nominees which a man approves he should reject them all. Let the parties understand that classes will go to platforms to catch votes will drive away intelligence."

Colonel Herbert especially emphasized the growing readiness to party revolt among the Alabama newspapers, and commended those which refused to stand by the party in 1896. He particularly urged activity in party primaries and nominations, so as to prevent the necessity of revolt at the election.

THE INSULAR DECISION.

He continued:

"One of the greatest questions for solution now is whether the constitution follows the flag in the insular possessions. The turning over of the Philippines is an accomplished fact. Shall we govern them, or us? Parties swapped positions on the underlying question. The Abolitionists, Garret Smith and Charles Sumner, declared that the Declaration of Independence taught that all are free and equal. Now the expansion Republicans have the opposite view, which was held by the old Democratic leaders.

"Our Democratic friends in Congress, taking care always to quote from Lincoln, make the welkin ring with the views of the old time abolitionists."

The speaker discussed the supreme court decision in the Porto Rico case, and said the main declaration was correct, and he regretted it was not unanimous.—Atlanta Constitution.

"Reconstruction gave the ballot to the negro, and this led to the ballot box frauds in the South, where the ballot box had always been sacred. Fraud stalks through the land like a pestilence in the night. The line is imaginary between counting out the negro because his vote is cast for the wrong candidate, and counting out the white man because his vote is obnoxious. Honest elections are the only salvation of the country. Let all educated men proclaim aloud that except upon the basis of honest elections the natural outcome of republicanism is discontent, unrest, instability and finally revolution."

BEADS FOR INDEPENDENCE
The speaker turned to the remedy and declared it to be greater independence of thought and action, less lavish adherence to parties. The "yellow dog" theory of politics will not do. Worthy men must not surrender their power in party and state.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.
An Ingenious Treatment by Which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Noxious Doses. No Weakening of the Nerves. A Pleasant and Positive Cure for the Habitual Drinker.

In a note, however, he said that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison, and nerves completely shattered by palordial or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison, and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The following account according to directions, to cure the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the miraculous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men.

Wives cure your husbands!!! Children cure your fathers!!! This remedy is in no sense nostrum but is specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste, so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee with the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of drunkards have come themselves with this priceless remedy and have been completely cured and made temperate men by having the "Cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe to-day that discontinued drinking of their own free will. Do not wait. Do not be deluded by a parent and leading "improvement."

Drive out the disease at once and for all time. The "The Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody treatment more effectual than others costing $20 to $50. Full directions are given to any part of the world on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept. 1, Edwin R. Giles & Company, 2339 and 2323 Market street, Philadelphia.

All correspondents strictly confidential.

MANUFACTURERS.

No Tariff Agitation but the Right Sort of Reciprocity is What They Want.

If there has at any time been any doubt as to where the Manufacturers' Club stands upon the question of the maintenance of a Protective Tariff, the action which that organization has just taken removes it, and leaves no pretext for any further misrepresentation upon the subject. By a unanimous vote the club has placed itself on record as opposing any modification of the present Tariff, or any agitation to that end, and as favoring the policy of a judicious and mutually advantageous reciprocity.

This agrees precisely with the view of the question which was recently presented by Mr. Theodore C. Search in his capacity of president of the National Association of Manufacturers, and upon which we took occasion at the time approvingly to comment. Mr. Search in his address, advocated the extension of the principle of reciprocity in accordance with the program long ago, at the instance of Mr. Blaine adopted by the Republican party, and at this time warmly favored by no less a person than the President himself. What Mr. Search said was promptly adopted by the Free Trade papers and construed by them as an indication that the Protectionists were preparing to abandon the ground which they always heretofore occupied, but of course there was no justification for any such interpretation. In the same speech Mr. Search had been careful to reassess his unabated loyalty to and confidence in the Protective policy and his unshaken belief in the necessity for its perpetuation. He deprecated, the Manufacturers' Club has deprecated now, any modification of the Tariff or any agitation looking in that direction, and he pointed out that, so far from the Protective system being incompatible with the enforcement of the policy of Protection, it furnished the only basis upon which a reciprocal arrangement could be established.

That is the view which has been embodied in the resolutions which the Manufacturers' Club has now adopted, and it may be hoped that hereafter the position of the manufacturers of Philadelphia upon this question may be neither misrepresented nor misunderstood. They are opposed to the opening of any agitation upon this issue. They don't want the Tariff changed, and they don't want any talk about changing it, because they know how instantly and injuriously any such discussion affects the course of business. At the same time they appreciate the importance, and indeed the necessity, for retarding and extending our hold upon the foreign market, and they are heartily in favor of opening our markets on favorable terms for what we do not ourselves produce, in return for free foreign markets." That seems to be sufficiently explicit and intelligible.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

The Cure for Cholera Infantum—

Never Known to Fail.

During last May infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for stomach and bowel trouble, says O. W. Wakefield, of Columbus, Ga. "This remedy cured two severe cases of cholera morbus in my family and I have recommended it to my customers to their entire satisfaction. It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form. No family should be without it. I keep it in my house at all times." For sale by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. in Colorado.

IS TRUTH "LOW DOWN?"
Last week we took up the record of Mr. Smith on the "Two Weeks' Pay Bill," and showed conclusively to every reasonable mind, that Mr.
Smith, without cause, turned against his friend, the laboring man, and voted to keep him in poverty—a complete slave at the mine operators.

We don't know what he got out of voting for the corporations, but it is not logical to conclude, that as he had no interest in coal mining, he would have voted in the interest of the poor, hard-working laboring man, had there not been other powers that be influenced on him? Our argument in his conduct stands approved by himself and colleagues.

In addition to what we said about the Legislature of '99 and its results, we took up the campaign from a Democratic standpoint, arguing that State politics had been ordered out of the campaign by the head of the ticket and approved by each of the sub-heads; our readers are advised as to what we said last week, and they know in the positive that we said not an unkind word about those calling themselves Democratic nominees.

We just simply took up their conduct and the principles they stand for. We used parts, pertaining to the conduct of the members of that ticket, which facts were, or may have been "low down." We simply called the attention of our readers to the manner in which the proprietors of the "Bookbairn procession" tried to inflame the minds of the citizens of the county, by distributing paintings of various designs, but for the sole purpose of fanning the party passions to a flame of intense hatred. In doing this, we alluded to a young man —who perhaps knew no better—calling no cause, who destroyed the red flag in the "bull's face." Our statement in this matter was very clear.

We abused no one, but simply pointed out the lies of Democratic procedure.

It is certainly not "low down" to say that this or that lady was in the "Bookbairn procession." Indeed, we had no thought of calling into question the good name of a sweet woman, but to show who were instrumental in fanning hatred in the hearts of men over a foolish and idiotic administration that ought not to be noticed by civilized Americans. We did not hope for our line of argument to please "Mr. Bentou," the Republican, which is so "odious and dangerous." What is that Republicanism, which is not only odious but dangerous? Simply a strict belief in justice, a loyal submission to the decree of the people, in the advocacy of majority rule and the sanctity of the ballot, opposition to taking office by judicial law and legislative force, and strict adherence to the Divine injunction: "Thou shalt not steal, thou shalt not kill."

Before hazarding its future for all time, we thought it proper to advise as to the qualities and characteristics of this modern Kentucky Republicanism, for it is too hazardous for them.

In answer to all we said last week about the conduct of Mr. Smith in the legislature and the principles for which they stand, "Mr. Bentou" had mighty little to say. He is incapable of conducting a line of argument, but is excellent in abuse and superficial "billingsgate." Following is his denial of Mr. Smith of the charges made against him last week for voting against the "Two Week's Pay Bill."

Republicans, are you ready for the change? Would "A. G. Bentou" literature be acceptable? Be not deceived by what we may say, take his own record for it. He is directly opposed to a man serving as Governor, and in the indictment of Justus Goebel for "agreeing to procure, and procuring, for Jerry Kirtley the office of City Auditor of Covington for an agreed price, to be paid in installments of $50 per month." The indictment charges further that, pursuant to the agreement, Goebel paid him the sum of $400 on account, from and out of the proceeds of his salary as Auditor, no doubt. It was known at noon that Rhinecock would defeat Harbeson, but it was not until within a few minutes of 4 o'clock that the indictment was made public property.
There was some criticism of the fact of the withholding of the indictment until so late an hour, but it was right that that course should have been taken. Any other course would have brought on Judge Tarvin the odium of the charge that the indictment had been made public property for the purpose of influencing the result of the primary.

Whether Justus Goebel will, of his own will and accord, return to ascertain by what presumptions right the grand jury of Kenton has dared to make inquiry into his pecuniary methods, or to meddle with his disposition of the office and emoluments of Kenton county, in particular, and Kentucky in general, is of minor moment.

His power is gone for good and all and the day is different from the days of last year, when he deliberately ordered the Democratic Committee of Kenton county to nominate Harbeson to succeed his brother in the Senate, and read Rhinecock out of the party, its immunities, rights, privileges and emoluments.

Last Saturday Rhinecock easily defeated Harbeson, notwithstanding the latter's personal, his high standing and ability as a lawyer, but Harbeson stood for Goebelism, and Justus Goebel stood for Harbeson, and the Democratic voters would have none of it. The campaign was carried on with all the smenities that usually mark campaigns in the home of Goebelism. Late on Friday evening an anonymous circular was distributed, charging Rhinecock with alsoot and manner of crimes and misdemeanors, the principal whereof was his alleged connection with the Stan-ard Oil Company. The circular called on all true Democrats to down the trust, in the person of its agent, Rhine-cock, and presented copious extracts from the New York Journal to show that the Standard Oil Company is a bad thing and an octopus of the first water. And no doubt it is, but it was not the issue in Kenton county politics with whom he had hoped to make life's journey.
